EXHIBIT B

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, v. EDWARDS LIFESCIENCES CORP. and GENESIS MEDTECH GROUP LIMITED Defendants.	Civil Action No. 1:26-cv-02450-AHA

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE WITH PROVISIONS OF THE ANTITRUST PROCEDURES AND PENALTIES ACT

The United States of America certifies that it has complied with the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act ("APPA"), 15 U.S.C. § 16 and states:

1. The United States filed the Complaint, Stipulation and Order, proposed Final Judgment, and Competitive Impact Statement on July 13, 2026. An updated Complaint and Stipulation were filed on July 16, 2026.

2. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 16(b), the proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement were published in the Federal Register on July 23, 2026, 91 Fed. Reg. 46455.

3. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 16(c), a summary of the terms of the proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement were published in The Washington Post, a newspaper of general circulation in the District of Columbia, for seven days beginning on July 27, 2026, and ending on August 4, 2026.

4. No determinative materials or documents within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. § 16(b) were considered by the United States in formulating the proposed Final Judgment, so none were furnished to any person pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 16(b) or listed pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 16(c).

5. As required by 15 U.S.C. § 16(g), on July 16, 2026, Defendants filed with the Court descriptions of any written or oral communications made by or on behalf of Defendants, with any officer or employee of the United States concerning the proposed Final Judgment.

6. The public comment period specified in 15 U.S.C. § 16(b) commenced on August 4, 2026, and ran for at least 60 days. The United States received no comments from members of the public concerning the proposed Final Judgment.

7. The parties have, therefore, satisfied all the requirements of the APPA that were conditions for entering the proposed Final Judgment. Pursuant to the Stipulation and Order filed on July 13, 2026, and 15 U.S.C. § 16(e), the Court may enter the Final Judgment after it determines that the proposed Final Judgment serves the public interest.

8. The United States's Competitive Impact Statement demonstrates that the proposed Final Judgment satisfies the public interest standard of 15 U.S.C. § 16(e).

9. Pursuant to the Stipulation and Order dated July 17, 2026, Defendants stipulated that the Final Judgment could be filed with and entered by the Court, upon the motion of the United States or upon the Court's own motion, at any time after compliance with the requirements of the APPA, and without further notice to any party or other proceeding.

10. The United States requests that this Court enter the Final Judgment without further proceedings or hearings.

Dated: October 26, 2026

Respectfully Submitted,
